

ALMA HOXHA

Alma Hoxha is an associate attorney with Cinnamon Mueller with nineteen years telecommunications law experience involving regulatory and compulsory copyright compliance, transactional, and operational matters.

Practice Overview

Alma's practice focuses on representing cable, wireless, and broadband telecommunications companies on an array of regulatory, programming, operational and transactional matters. She also assists cable, broadband, and telecom companies in assessing the impact of Federal and State legislation, FCC rulings and legal opinions on their business. Alma has significant experience in regulatory compliance, contract negotiation and drafting, broadband and telecommunications law.

Alma also assists with merger and acquisition transactions of cable systems. She works on a wide range of transactional matters including reviewing agreements, regulatory compliance, and due diligence matters.

Personal History

Alma joined Cinnamon Mueller in 2005 as a paralegal and then as an Attorney in 2024 after graduating from the Loyola University Chicago School of Law. She has been surrounded by the cable and telecommunication industry her entire professional career. Starting as a paralegal under the mentorship of Christopher Cinnamon, Alma devoted her professional career in regulatory and compulsory copyright compliance, transactional, and operational matters. During law school, her coursework focused on business organization, corporate transactions, and intellectual property. Outside of the office, Alma enjoys spending time with her family, running, and hiking.

Education

J.D., Loyola University School of Law, Chicago, IL, 2023

B.S., Political Science, Roosevelt University, Chicago, IL, 2005

Publications

Co-Author, "Lions and Tigers and Cable Compulsory Copyrights- Oh My," Independent Cable News (2014)

Bar Admissions

Illinois

Professional Affiliations

Illinois Bar Association

Chicago Bar Association

Federal Bar Association